SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION: (Arrange yourselves by first name alphabetically. The last will lead the group)

1. Read Romans 8:26-28 together. Then, discuss these questions:

What does this verse teach us about God's sovereignty and how He uses both good and bad circumstances in our lives?

What does it mean to love God and be "called according to His purpose," and how does that affect the way we view the trials we face?

2. Blessings in disguise: Break into pairs. Ask your partner to think of a difficult or challenging experience in their lives that ended up bringing unexpected blessings later on. Each person shares their experience. Then, pray for each other.
3. Regroup and memorize Romans 8:28 together. Each group will be called to stand and recite the verse from memory.
4. Finally, choose 2 people from your small group to share their testimony to the large group.
